AUSTRALIAN SOCCER ANNUAL

Compiled by Keith Gilmour and Lou Gautier

An Australian Soccer Weekly publication

THIS year's Australian Soccer Annual is complete with an array of pictures drawn from the Australian Socceroos' exploits in the 1988 Bicentennial Cup and the Olympic Games, as well as from the 1989 World Cup campaign.

Many vital records have been included to April 1989.

It has been possible to update many National Soccer League squads to illustrate their 1989 players.

All states have been covered both pictorially and in stories and records, with a special section on indoor activities.

ASA trusts that the Australian soccer public will find the 1989 production of great interest, and an excellent addition to each follower's permanent soccer library.

A BANNER YEAR FOR SOCCEROOS IN 1988

Mission accomplished, and a job well done, are apt descriptions for Australia's 1988 international achievements.

The Olympics and the Bicentennial Gold Cup dominated the Socceroos' hectic year which started with three important build-up games against crack European First Division club sides — Sweden's IFK Goteborg and the legendary Dinamo Zagreb, Croatia's pride and joy in the Yugoslav League.

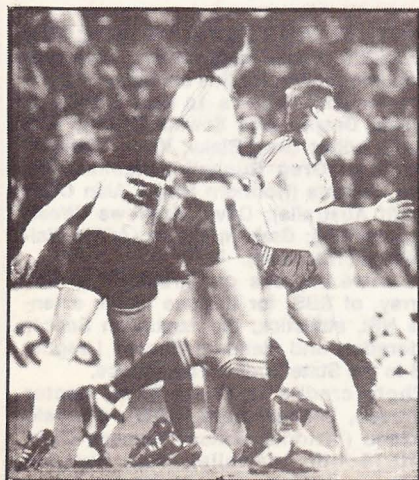

These matches, in the heat of January and February, sorted the men from the boys, as they say, and were invaluable for Australian coach Frank Arok's Olympic squad selection process.

A return match in Canberra against Chinese Taipei, disposed of 3-0 in Suva in November 1987 in the first leg, resulted in another comfortable 3-0 win — which qualified both teams for the Olympic qualifying play-offs proper by virtue of Chinese Taipei's win over Western Samoa.

Australia and New Zealand were the venues for the home-and-away series involving Israel, the Socceroos and the All Whites.

Australia kicked off in the best possible way, with a smashing 2-0 win over Israel in Melbourne and, from then on, were never headed in the tournament, which the Socceroos finally won, one clear point ahead of the Israelis, who unsuccessfully played catch-up.

The Socceroos, undoubtedly,

Graham Arnold and Paul Wade follow the action in the Australia-Argentina clash.

cemented their qualification in the Australian leg, collecting a maximum six points out of six.

They were not so successful on New Zealand's less than friendly shores, but stood their ground well to salvage another four points and remain unbeaten — but the going was tough, in more ways than one, with the matches against Israel and New Zealand at times resembling trench warfare.

With a coveted berth in the Olympic finals — Australia's first since qualifying automatically as the host nation in 1956 — tucked under their belts, the Socceroos then tackled the might of South America, and a Saudi Arabian team which spared no money or effort to put its best foot forward, in the Bicentennial Gold Cup in July.

Argentina and Brazil may have been prevented from fielding their European-based stars, and Diego Maradona opted for a Tahitian holiday instead, but both South American sides were competent enough to give full value for money, especially the flamboyant Brazilians.

The new crop of Brazilian stars enchanted Australian crowds and went on to conquer Europe on a mini-tour before winning more new fans in the heat of Olympic competition in South Korea where they missed out on the gold medal by the barest of margins.

Australia captivated the hearts and minds of the nation with a memorable 4-1 win against Argentina after accounting for Saudi Arabia 3-0 to set up a spectacular final clash with Brazil at the Sydney Football Stadium.

In front of a 28,000-plus crowd, the Aussies were beaten by the better team. Few national teams, anywhere in the world, would have defeated Brazil on the day.

With Australia's international reputation at an all-time high, the Socceroos set forth for Seoul — and the daunting task of a preliminary group comprising of Brazil, Yugoslavia and Nigeria.

FIFA did Australia no favours by placing them in the toughest group of all, but the Socceroos had the last laugh.

A most emphatic 1-0 win in the opener against Yugoslavia set the world on its ear and when Australia, through a John Kosmina goal, beat Nigeria by the same score, the Socceroos were through to the quarter-finals, even if a 3-0 defeat by Brazil gave them a negative goal difference in the process.

It took the might of the eventual gold medallists from the Soviet Union — and two shattering penalties in the space of three minutes early in the second half — to eliminate a brave Australian team which was officially ranked 7th in Seoul by the world body.

Less than four weeks after their Olympic exploits, the Australians were back on deck. The assignment: wrest back the Trans-Tasman Cup from New Zealand.

Despite the loss of several key players, the Socceroos didn't let their growing legion of the fans down, winning 2-1 in Dunedin and 2-0 in Bendigo to clinch the series with a new-look team.

EARLY EXIT FROM WORLD CUP IN '89

Australia's dreams of a berth in the 1990 World Cup were shattered by Israel in the Oceania qualifying group.

On April 16, 1989, before an overflow crowd of 43,000 at the Sydney Football Stadium, the Socceroos, needing a win to advance to the play-offs against the winners of South American Group 2, could only manage a 1-1 draw with the well-heeled Israelis.

It was always going to be tough for Australia to qualify after a 2-0 loss to New Zealand in Auckland, which left the Israelis needing just a draw in the final match to qualify.

Australia started well enough with a 4-1 demolition of the All Whites in the opener at Sydney Football Stadium on March 9, but it was downhill after that despite a hard-earned 1-1 draw in Tel Aviv, courtesy of a magnificent equalising free-kick by captain Charlie Yankos after Eli Ohana had converted a controversial penalty.

Frank Arok's decision to field his expatriate stars — Charlie Yankos, Eddie Krncevic, Frank Farina and David Mitchell — did not bring the expected results.

Yankos, excepted, none proved a factor in any of the games they played in.

Australia's pre-World Cup preparation was sketchy, at best.

Two warm-up games against Swedish champions Malmo FF in February was nothing like the intense build-up of Israel against leading European sides.

In the final analysis, the Socceroos were just not good enough.

Italian referee Carlo Longhi did them no favours in the final match of the series, but the series was lost well before Australia and Israel came out for the group's finale.

It's back to the drawing board for the national team.

The road to the USA in 1994 begins now if Australia is to emulate the deeds of the 1974 Socceroos, the only side to reach the finals of a World Cup.

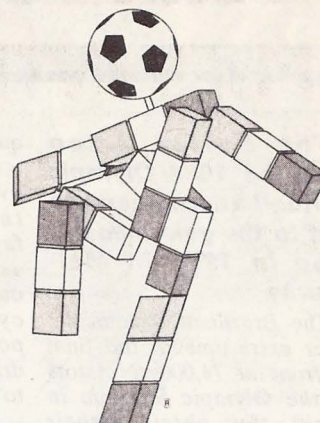

Australia is well endowed with talented young players capable of going one better than those who have achieved Bicentennial Gold Cup and Olympic glory.

Australia's international future is in safe hands, given a fair chance by the powers that be.

MARCONI 1988 NSL CHAMPIONS

TRIUMPHANT AT THE END!

MARCONI'S COME-FROM-BEHIND 1988 NATIONAL LEAGUE TITLE

Marconi turned fourth place in the minor premiership into gold when they stormed through the Top Five play-offs to win the 1988 National League title.

In most other years Wollongong City would have won the championship outright as a just reward for topping the home-and-away rounds, but not in 1988 when the Wolves' stout-hearted efforts amounted for nought, courtesy of the NSL's new format.

To add insult to injury, Wollongong lost both their play-off matches, leaving Marconi and Sydney Croatia to fight out the Grand Final.

Marconi, who had flattered only to deceive in the championship rounds, hit their stride when it mattered — and did so impressively.

Despite a game challenge by the youthful, exuberant South Melbourne Hellas, Marconi and Croatia always looked likely grand finalists.

And so it came to pass — at Parramatta Stadium, on Sunday, September 4, 1988.

APIA'S CUP

Apia Leichhardt and Brunswick Juventus salvaged some of their mediocre 1988 season by reaching the final of the Beach Fashions Cup, Apia winning the trophy in a shoot-out.

Poor scheduling played havoc with attendances and, not surprisingly, less than 2,000 turned up for the final at Marconi Stadium.

Results:

Round 1: Footscray JUST 3 Preston Makedonia 2; Brunswick Juventus 1 Melbourne Croatia 0; Adelaide City 2 St George 0; Apia Leichhardt 2 Marconi 1.

Quarter-finals: Brunswick Juventus 7 Footscray JUST 6 (shoot-out); Apia Leichhardt 4 Sydney Olympic 2 (shoot-out); Sydney Croatia 3 Brisbane Lions 0; South Melbourne Hellas 5 Adelaide City 2.

Semi-finals: Brunswick Juventus 1 South Melbourne Hellas 0; Apia Leichhardt 2 Sydney Croatia 1.

Final: Apia Leichhardt 5 Brunswick Juventus 3 (shoot-out).

Marconi and Sydney Croatia clash L to R: Gerry Gomez challenges an opponent; Frank Farina, Vedran Rozic, Alan Hunter, Mark Jones.

Both teams did Australian Soccer proud as they turned on the fireworks to thoroughly entertain — and drain — an enthralled crowd of 17,000-plus.

The 5-4 penalty shoot-out scoreline in Marconi's favour — which broke a 120-minute 2-2 deadlock — was almost irrelevant.

There was only one winner — Australian club football.

Both teams were equally deserving and it's a pity there had to be a winner and a loser, to satisfy the statisticians.

Croatia was twice a "bridesmaid" in 1988 as they only lost the minor premiership on goal-difference.

Almost equally engrossing was the fight for survival at the wrong end of the ladder, where the identity of the team to be demoted along with Brisbane Lions was a well-guarded secret until the end.

Brunswick Juventus eventually bowed out, and Preston Makedonia just hung in by the skin of their teeth, with Apia Leichhardt, the 1987 champions, in dangerous waters as well.

While Wollongong City exceeded the hopes of even their most rabid fans with a team of "discards" and so-called lesser talents, Melbourne Croatia and Footscray JUST, for all the well-heeled performers in their ranks, were mired in mediocrity throughout the season.

Sydney Olympic and Sunshine George Cross, with highly promising young teams, staged a battle royal for fifth place, with the former clinching a Top Five berth in the very last league round.

Adelaide City and St George rallied from early and mid-season slumps to attain respectable final placings.

And Heidelberg ended a 12-month exile from the elite by winning the 1988 Victorian State League title, then defeating Brisbane City 3-1 on aggregate for a 1989 National League berth.

NATIONAL LEAGUE INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

The votes in 1988's national Rothmans Awards went South Melbourne Hellas' way.

Socceroo midfielder Paul Wade won the National Rothmans Gold Medal, ahead of fellow-midfielder Jason Polak, of Sydney Olympic, and Brisbane Lions' goalkeeper Jason Kearton, now in England with Everton.

Paul Trimboli, of South Melbourne, took out the Under 21 Player of the Year award, ahead, again, of the multi-faceted Polak.

The Coach of the Year was Hellas' Brian Garvey, in recognition of his moulding of a young team into an explosive title-aspiring outfit. He edged out Wollongong City's John Fleming, for many the favourite, and Sunshine's John Gardiner.

When it came to Players' Player of the Year, Frank Farina (Marconi/FC Brugge) bolted in, as he did in 1987, way out in front of Wade and Robbie Slater.

Farina also took out the goalscorers' award for the second year in a row.

Looking to future talent, Paul Okon of Marconi, became the Northern Division's Player of the Year, and George Alevisos, from Sunshine George Cross, the recipient in the Southern Division.

SBS-TV's Most Entertaining Player award went to Robbie Slater of Sydney Croatia.

Chris Bambridge was voted Referee of the Year — a fitting reward for a World Cup and Olympic referee. The Victorian was in charge of the South Korea v Argentina clash in Pusan.

NSL Attendances

Sydney Croatia and South Melbourne Hellas were the top NSL drawcards in the 1988 season.

The National League attracted 496,389 spectators in 1988, with those two clubs accounting for more than 20 percent of the home-and-away crowds.

The largest attendance during the regular season came in Round 24 when 8014 fans watched the Sydney Croatia v Marconi game at Edensor Park.

Smallest crowd was the 212 turnout for Lions' match against Apia Leichhardt in Brisbane on July 1, 1988.

Each year, Soccer expert Joe Marton compiles a meticulously detailed list of the West End National League First and Second elevens for AUSTRALIAN SOCCER WEEKLY.

The NSL coaches nominate the players, excluding any who play for their own clubs.

In addition, they pick the best players they would like to sign, the opposing clubs' Coach of the Year, the Most Valuable Player, and their choice as Referee of the Year, as well as their under 23 selections.

There is no better way to come up with the right choices than to go directly to the NSL club coaches.

The coaches have a second-to-none appreciation of who the top men in the code are in every category.

Joe Marton's painstaking research gives a revealing insight into this vital aspect of Australian Soccer.

DEMONS INTO NSL AS EAGLES SLUMP

BY ALEX VESIC

Blacktown City Demons powered their way back into the NSL, but not before some heart-stopping action in the closing stages of the 1988 NSW State League competition.

It was a very close affair.

Melita started full of fire and led the rest of the field by five points at one stage, prompting observers to declare the 1988 NSW State League as a predictable 'one horse race'.

Coach Raul Blanco failed in his bid to have Melita share the lead by just one point after 26 rounds, and one might be tempted to regard the Eagles' early good running and comments associated with those early good fortunes partly to blame.

It is easy to be clever in hindsight and ponder about 'what might have been'.

Also it is easy to say that Melita would have won had it not have been for some definite signs of complacency amongst the players.

However, in the last five rounds Melita managed to lose five points, while Blacktown lost only one match. The one-point lead was quite enough to see the Demons back in the NSL.

Blacktown won most of the matches (18), scored most goals and conceded the least number of goals. The Demons also gleaned 40 points to Melita's 39 — a telling factor after 26 gruelling rounds.

Wollongong Macedonia showed early signs of good fortunes with four wins in five matches to command a place in top four and even suggest that the side could challenge for the title.

Alas, its early fire went out, one of the most dedicated and hard working coaches, Mike Johnson, departed and the side, despite some late flurry on the transfer market finished second last.

Canterbury Marrickville, despite its social club sale, which grossed a reported 2.5 million dollars, showed little or no sign of ever challenging for the top despite mid-season rush which had the Berries winning 11 out of a possible 14 points.

Ku-ring-gai had its own share of problems and could so easily have finished just above Yugal in the second last spot but for that heart-warming 2-0 win over Wollongong Macedonia at Valentine Park.

However, four losses and a draw in the last six matches following a string of six drawn games, was the coup de grace for a side many tipped to give this League a shake in 1988 with the likes of Bass, Jeffery and Berry in its line-up.

Yugal looked doomed all the way. Its late arrival Jimmy McBreen tried hard to revive the team towards the end. He scored seven goals for them and gave the 'Blues' an ever so slender chance to survive.

Uruguayan Penrith and Newcastle Austral took the third and fourth spots on the ladder.

While the Novocastrians never looked in danger of missing the top four spot, Uruguay had to come back with one of the most spectacular finishes to earn a play-off position.

Washington Gonzalez, David Batten and Aytek Genc were their best and certainly the players most responsible for the 1988 success.

It was a different story at the Austral ground. Some hard work by officials Eddie Boards and Dave Brown to consolidate the playing staff and uncompromising work by coach Willie Gallagher ensured that the near-disaster at the start of the season was averted.

Five losses in the first seven rounds put Newcastle Austral's young side into the barrel as 'wooden spoon candidates'.

With Howard Treddinick showing courage and determination, Paul Crabtree some wonderful midfield organising skills and Brett Porter, Martin Cummins and Robert Holden exercising their hunger for goals, the side won six of the next seven games (with one drawn) and never looked back.

Canberra City, next known as Canberra Olympic and in the end Canberra Croatia, finished way below its potential, but way above its attitude towards the League in 1988.

After so many upheavals, Canberra Croatia, just as Canberra City did the year before, decided the issue at the top of the table.

When most expected Melita Eagles to beat Canberra at Melita Stadium, the side from the ACT sprung an upset and won 1-0.

That was the result which in the end proved decisive in the make-up of the top two.

Rockdale Ilinden, potentially one of the best crowd-pulling teams, started the season in superb touch, waltzing past their opponents in the pre-season cup matches and producing some sparkling football.

After nine rounds, and nine points in the bag, their coach was shown the door, and the team limped home to finish with 10 wins and 11 losses for a middle of the table placing.

Hardly good enough for a team which boasted an array of NSL stars like Dounis, Koussas, Knight, Genovese, Boogard and Porter.

Inter Monaro caused as many headaches to its own supporters as did Marko Perinovic to opposing goalkeepers and club secretaries.

One could not overlook the likes of Sebastian Giampaolo, Marko Perinovic and Attilio Carbone in a season that, with a little more luck and less injury to Giampaolo, could have seen Inter Monaro challenge for the top spot.

Sutherland Shire, or the Westfield Soccer Sharks as Peter Gary likes his side to be referred to, did precious little to justify the 'Sharks' tag.

There was hardly any bite in these Soccer Sharks in 1988.

The ingredients for success were there with the O'Shea brothers, Robert and John; Craig Burchmore, one of the best goalkeepers in the League; the craft and NSL experience of Caban and Meades and the youthful enthusiasm and sharp skills of Michael Lardis and Daryl Sharpe.

And let's not forget the hard work of Max Groll, the coach.

Warringah Freshwater, boasting a number of Manly Warringah players and including former Socceroo Murray Barnes, registered only a single success and eight drawn matches in the first 16 rounds which put the team in line for relegation.

The side took 10th place but won its own title of the "Best side north of the Harbour Bridge".

Last but not least, and certainly my favourite side in 1988 was Polonia.

Call me a sucker for football skills, call me what you like, but Polonia had what it takes to entertain.

It may not have won as many matches as it should have, it may not have finished in the four, but I would gladly travel to Chopin Park every second Sunday to see the likes of Lasek Kulwicki, Pavel Janduda, Jurek Drys and Stefan Janic in action.

PERINOVIC A GLUTTON FOR GOLDEN GOALS!

Goal-a-game Marko Perinovic of Inter Monaro took the goal scoring honours in 1988 with 26 goals.

He scored five goals against Rockdale Ilinden to spearhead his side to its 5-3 win after being 3-0 down at one stage.

Additionally, he netted two hat-tricks and managed to get on the scoresheet in 15 matches out of the 22 he played in.

Greg Brown of Meltia Eagles was second with 21 goals, boasting two hat-tricks and scoring in 14 matches out of 24 played.

AVALA IS PROMOTED

Avala defeated Illawarra district side Fairy Meadow 2-0 in a play-off to win promotion to the NSW State League in 1989.

The venue was Melita Stadium, and although Avala were understrength as a result of injuries to key players in the preceding week's grand final, they were able to produce a winning effort.

Avala's first goal came from a penalty, Milan Blagojevic, the Young Soccer-oo, converting the spot-kick after Drago Constantine had been tripped in the area.

There were no further scoring chances until five minutes before full-time as both teams concentrated on tight defence.

At that stage, Paul Quarmby collected a pass from Martin Driene and blasted a sizzler past Fairy Meadow goalkeeper Graham Cooke to seal the game — and promotion — for Avala.

The play-off was necessary as it is stipulated in the NSW Federation rules that if two or more teams finish level at the end of the league season, a play-off, and not goal-difference, will decide which team is promoted.

EARLY HISTORY

The first Soccer football match in Australia was played on the Parramatta Common on August 14, 1880, between the Wanderers and The Kings School, with the former winning 5-0.

The code progressed in the Newcastle and Coalfields and the Illawarra regions as well, with the first Sydney competition, won by Caledonians, taking place in 1885.

In 1884, the initial Inter-District Challenge took place, won 4-0 by Sydney over South Coast at the Sydney Cricket Ground.

The Rainsford Trophy was won by Granville in 1885 and 1886, with Hamilton Athletic, from Newcastle, the 1887 winner.

The Gardiner Cup was next installed as the NSW premier knockout, running right through from 1888 to 1928.

History shows a group of Sydney and Newcastle winners, featuring clubs such as Pyrmont, Balmain, Granville and Gladesville-Ryde.

From Newcastle came clubs such as West Wallsend, Adamstown and Weston.

The State League Cup (1928-44) saw Cessnock, Metters, Adamstown and Leichhardt-Annandale on top.

The next series was the 1943-58 State League Cup, with Leichhardt, Corrimal and Wallsend to the fore.

In premierships over the 1928-1958 era, the mighty Goodyear team shone with three successive titles in 1937/1939.

This era signalled a steady transfer of power from Newcastle to Sydney, as Metters, and then Leichhardt-Annandale, took over.

GIAMPAOLO STRIKES GOLD

Inter Monaro's Sebastian Giampaolo blitzed a quality field to win the 1988 NSW Rothmans Medal.

The 29-year-old striker collected 33 of the points awarded by the referees to finish nine points ahead of goalgetter Greg Brown, of Melita Eagles.

Penrith's classy Washington Gonzalez, a one-time star of Penarol (Uruguay), came in third, a point behind Brown and one ahead of a trio composed of former Polish First Division forward Pavel Janduda (Polonia), Tom Sermanni (Canberra) and team-mate John Bradley.

The prestigious award is a just reward for Giampaolo after years of disappointment.

His 12-year career has been plagued by injuries which prevented him from fulfilling his exciting potential.

SEBASTIAN GIAMPAOLO

With any degree of luck, he would have appeared many more times for Australia instead of just the one full 'A' cap against Greece, especially after his transfer, for a then record fee of $20,000, to Apia Leichhardt from Canberra City in 1981.

The Rothmans Medal is a fitting tribute to his splendid 1988 season — and to a checkered career.

SECOND DIVISION

Avala achieved a clean sweep of NSW Division 2 honours in 1988 when they added the grand final to the premiership — and promotion to the State League.

With the best scoring and defensive record in the competition, theirs was a deserved victory, but it was close all the way.

Coach Mike Urukalo, who has since moved to Apia Leichhardt, was able to call on a pool of talented players who combined youth and experience — a surefire promotion — winning mix.

When all the points were tallied, only goal-difference separated Avala from Fairy Meadow, both clubs totalling 44 points after 26 league rounds.

While Fairy Meadow Italia only just missed out on the top spot, they can look back on a satisfying season.

Amongst their top players in 1988 were defenders Peter Willis, Darren Galway, Paul Meares and Ian Shaw; NSW Combined High Schools striker John Danzo and midfielder Richard Lloyd.

Sydney Macedonia, third in the premiership — five points behind the run-away leaders — gained some consolation by downing Fairy Meadow in the preliminary final to set up a grand final date with Avala.

Kingsford Hellenic, a clear fourth in the premiership bowed out to Macedonia in the minor semi-final.

Ambitious Granville Chile could only have been disappointed by their fifth place as pre-season hopes were again high.

Maroubra Queens Park, Gladesville Hornsby, Blacktown United and Bathurst '75 middle-class status, while Bankstown, Campbelltown and University of NSW languished at the wrong end of the ladder.

THIRD DIVISION

Dulwich Hill, runner-away winners of the 1988 NSW Third Division, confirmed their superiority by also taking out the grand final.

Moorebank-Liverpool, runners-up in the premiership nine points adrift of Dulwich Hill, lost a thrilling grand final 1-0 to their arch-rivals to clearly establish themselves as No.2 in 1988 — so near, yet so far . . .

Baulkham Hills, edged into third place on goal-difference, were again desperately unlucky in the play-offs, losing the preliminary final on penalties.

Mt Druitt Town clinched the fourth play-off spot in the last two rounds of the season, only to be narrowly beaten in the minor semi-final, which was also decided in a penalty shoot-out.

Country club Orange Waratah performed with distinction to take fifth place ahead of Southern Districts, with Bondi Marine, Rooty

Hill, Concordia and Port Hacking all in close pursuit.

Canterbury District and King Tomislav were adrift at the bottom of the table for the whole season and filled the last two positions at the completion of the 22 league rounds.

The season was a personal triumph for Dulwich Hill player-coach Agenor Muniz, still going strong at the ripe "old" age of 39.

In displays reminiscent of his halcyon days, he scored several crucial goals and was well assisted by club stalwarts Joe Cingnella, Barros and Dennis Duarte.

Moorebank-Liverpool, the season's "bridesmaid", received yeoman service throughout from goalie R. Gisbourne, striker Peter Lanham and defender Kymantis.

Baulkham Hill were hampered by injuries to key players throughout the season and coach Willie Hamilton did remarkable well under the circumstances.

HEIDELBERG WORTHY CHAMPIONS

Bergers back in National League

Heidelberg did just what most people thought they would do by winning the 1988 Victorian State League championship.

The Bergers' exile from the NSL elite lasted only 12 months as they made no mistake accounting for Brisbane City in the end-of-season promotion play-off as well.

Heidelberg were, if not clearly the best, at least as good as any club in the State League on their day, and also the most consistent in the long run.

The final margin was two points from Croydon City, and three from St Albans and Green Gully.

At times, Heidelberg also received stiff challenges from the likes of Caulfield City and Thomastown.

Rarely has a Victorian State League competition been so competitive — at both ends of the table.

With so many clubs desperately seeking to avoid relegation, the 1988 championship produced many surprise scores.

For Victorian Soccer, Heidelberg's victory was the best possible result as none of the other title aspirants could boast the NSL potential, in every area, that the Bergers have.

But kudos must go to the fighting half dozen who nearly made it.

- To Thomastown, who defied all pre-season predictions to lead the league into the final fortnight.

- To Green Gully, who fought back against the doom merchants who fore-saw extinction for the club.

- To St Albans, who performances lived up to the best hype coach Tony Vrzina could produce in a remarkable year.

- To Caulfield, who were never out of the race for honours.

But to the victors go the spoils — and Heidelberg were worthy champions.

Ivan Kelic — Top Scorer

George Kouremenos of Northcote shows how a clean tackle should be executed. His "victim" was Heidelberg's Phil Stubbins.

Chris Bambridge voted Victorian referee of the year.

QUEENSLAND

Queensland has again missed NSL status, but Soccer is a huge and developing sport right throughout the Sunshine State.

QUEENSLAND TOPPLES NSW

Queensland went one better than in 1987 when they defeated NSW 1-0 in the interstate fixture at Perry Park over the Queen's Birthday weekend in June 1988.

The Queenslanders, who had drawn 1-1 the previous year, delighted the home crowd of 4,212 when Socceroo captain Charlie Yankos deflected a shot from Nick Meredith past NSW goalkeeper Tony Franken late in the game.

The result was another triumph for Queensland state coach Bruce Stowell, whose plan of attack worked to perfection.

Though NSW fielded something of a mixed team, they had no excuses and were beaten by the fitter, more aggressive side.

For Queensland players, deprived of national representative honours, this was the match of the year — and they relished it.

For NSW it was a humbling experience and they must prepare much more seriously if they are to seek revenge.

QUEENSLAND: Kearton, Mengotti, Perry, Grodum, Niven, Vogler, McDermott (Williamson), Meredith, Stewart, Brusasco (Cooper), Lightbrown.

NSW: Franken, Gomez, Jennings, Bundalo, Wheatley (Rodriguez), Farina, Arnold, Yankos, Slater, Savor, de Marigny.

Referee: G. Nicholson. Crowd: 4,212.

Brisbane Lions' outstanding young goalkeeper Jason Kearton makes a point-blank block.

HEARTBREAK FOR BRISBANE CITY

Brisbane City easily won the Queensland XXXX League premiership — a full three rounds before the end of the 1988 season.

After a two-horse race with North Star, City skipped clear as North Star slumped in the latter stages.

City's ease in winning the league — and a berth in the National League promotion play-off — was somewhat of a surprise, particularly after 1987 when North Star and City pushed Lions to the last game before they won the title by a single point.

It was coach Matt Carson's third Queensland top division premiership and City's first in 12 years.

City ruined their chances of National League status by losing 2-0 at home in the first leg against Heidelberg before drawing 1-1 in Melbourne.

Success also eluded them in the grand final, so the club ended the 1988 season virtually empty-handed, but in better financial position than most.

AMPOL CUP TO GOLD COAST

Gold Coast Gamblers, coached by Regional Director of Coaching, Jim Selby, took out Queensland's Ampol Cup final 4-3 in extra-time in a thrilling clash against North Star.

The first session ended scoreless, then six goals were rifled in over the last 105 minutes that had the crowd screaming with excitement.

With just eight minutes left of normal time, the Gold Coasters led 2-1 with goals fired in by Peter Dwyer and Paul Halford.

But North Star's Jerry Lindsay delayed celebrations when he equalised, necessitating extra-time.

Dwyer and Halford both scored again during the extra-period for Gold Coast to go ahead 4-2 and take the Cup.

North Star's other goal was scored by Billy Williamson.

Star Soccer personality, Frank Farina, presented the winners with their medals.

Their paths to the final:

Gold Coast: v Grange Thistle 3-0, v Newmarket 3-0, v Toowoomba 3-0, v North Queensland 2-1.

North Star: v Pine Rivers 4-1, v Rockhampton 3-0, v Brisbane Croatia 3-1, v Mount Gravatt 1-0.

NORTH STAR GRAND FINAL

North Star scored an emphatic 2-0 win in extra-time to capture the 1988 XXXX League grand final against Brisbane City at Perry Park.

The match was a triumph for North Star coach Iain Fagan as it was his last game with the club after five years at the helm.

Man-of-the-match Ken Swan engineered the North Star win with a tireless midfield display in energy-sapping heat.

He kept his team in the game during a strong City first half and put them in the box seat in the latter stages of a tension-filled match.

After a scoreless regulation 90 minutes, two players new to the club in 1988, swung the game North Star's way.

Jim McDonagh netted in the fourth minute of extra-time and Lee Scriggins sealed the result five minutes into the second period of extra-time.

FOOTNOTE: North Star were also victorious over City in the major semi-final.

AWARDS SPREAD OUT

Former Young Soccero Stephen Glockner resuscitated a dormant career when he took out the 1988 Rothmans Medal in Queensland.

The Olympic United striker polled 22 votes to beat Ipswich's Steve Bradford by two votes.

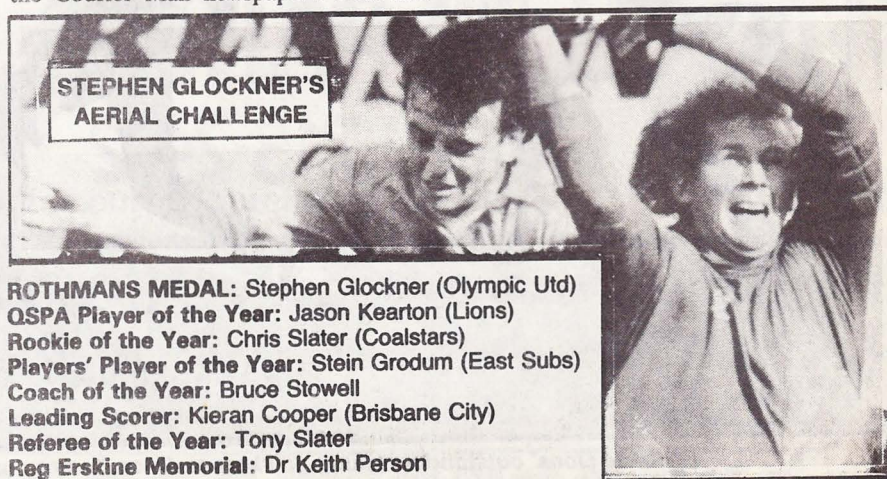

Eastern Suburbs defender, Stein Grodum, 23, scored a runaway win in the Courier Mail newspaper's Best and Fairest award, winning by seven points from Coalstars striker Mark Brusasco.

Bruce Stowell, who guided Queensland to a 1-0 win against NSW over the Queen's Birthday weekend, was voted Coach of the Year.

Lions goalkeeper Jason Kearton, now with Everton, was the recipient of the Queensland Soccer Writer's Player of the Year award.

The full list of Queensland winners:

Brisbane City striker Kieran Cooper was the leading Queensland XXXX League goalscorer for the second consecutive season.

Cooper finished the 22-match fixture programme with 21 goals — three more than his 1987 tally.

His efforts earned him the Australian Airlines prize of a ticket to Sydney.

NORTHERN NSW

Bluebells' grand final

GOALIE STARS FOR WESTY

West Wallsend reversed two defeats by Adamstown earlier in the season to win the 1988 Northern NSW grand final 2-1 in the first night fixture-ever for a season finale.

The West Wallsend Bluebells, who finished a point behind Adamstown in the race for the Northern NSW State First Division premiership, demonstrated the determination that led to the club winning the 1988 club championship award.

The team's triumph at Macquarie Field was a just reward for Trevor Smyth in his first season as senior coach with the club, but it really was goalkeeper John Russell who kept Rosebuds out with dazzling second half saves.

Russell, voted the best goalkeeper at the 1987 Under 16 World Cup in Canada, was clearly the player of the match as he repelled attack after attack.

West Wallsend took the lead in the 40th minute with a Glen Cameron goal.

Fourteen minutes into the second half, John McQuarrie converted a cross from the right to level the scores.

West Wallsend, not to be denied, replied in the 63rd minute with a Brett Baldwin header that sealed the result.

The path to the grand final: • Minor semi-final: Highfields Azzurri 2 Weston Bears 1. • Major semi-final: Adamstown 2 West Wallsend 0. • Preliminary final: West Wallsend 4 Highfields Azzurri 1.

Northern NSW v Tasmania 3-2

PENALTIES WIN IT!

Northern NSW had to revert to the dreaded penalty shoot-out to get the better of Tasmania over the 1988 Labour Day weekend at Newcastle.

Tasmania claimed a "moral" victory, but in the end it was Northern NSW who won the Bicentennial Challenge Trophy after 30 minutes of extra-time and an absorbing penalty shoot-out that went the North's way 3-2.

ADAMSTOWN BY A POINT

Adamstown Rosebud secured the 1988 Northern NSW State First Division premiership by a point from West Wallsend.

Highfields Azzurri, nine points below West Wallsend, finished in third spot, with Weston holding on to the fourth semi-final berth.

Stockton inherited the wooden spoon, three points adrift of Central Coast and Wallsend, who have fallen on hard times.

Final 1988 points: 1 Adamstown 40, 2 West Wallsend 39, 3 Azzurri 30, 4 Weston 29, 5 Belmont-Swansea 23, 6 Lake Macquarie 22, 7 Cardiff 21, 8 Central Coast 18, 9 Wallsend 18, 10 Stockton 15.

With the score deadlocked at 2-2 at full-time, and after two 15-minute periods of extra-time, Northern NSW edged ahead as goalkeeper Greg Geise brilliantly saved two Tasmanian penalty shots.

And when Tassie's Sergio Pace slammed his drive into the crossbar, the exciting encounter was over.

But the result could have been different as Tasmania had led 2-0 until the 64th minute through goals by Steve Kannagieser and Peter Sawdon.

Northern NSW, to their everlasting credit, fought back like tigers and pulled one back when Young Soccerroo Peter Murray scored in an unguarded net.

Nine minutes later, referee Milton Pollock awarded Northern NSW a penalty for a hand ball, and Peter Winsor placed his shot wide of Tassie 'keeper Peter Groenwoud for the equaliser.

THE 1988 PREMIERS

First Division: Adamstown Rosebud.

Second Division: Cessnock City.

Third Division: Newcastle Croatia.

Fourth Division: Kurri Kurri.

Fifth Division: Kahibah, Marks Point, Singleton.

Suburban League: Hamilton Academics.

Junior Super Leagues: Under 16: Austral United, Under 15: Highfields Azzurri, Under 14: Highfields Azzurri, Under 13: Hastings/Manning.

John McQuarrie, worthy of very high ranking, scored for Adamstown Rosebuds in the grand final.

ADAMSTOWN'S BENCHMARK CUP

Adamstown Rosebud gained some consolation for their grand final defeat by winning the Benchmark Building Supplies Cup.

Rosebud demolished the North Coast Premier League representative side 4-0 to win the trophy at Coffs Harbour Showground.

After establishing a 2-0 lead by half-time, Rosebud were never in danger of defeat against an enthusiastic team whose players were together as a unit for only the third time.

Adamstown hit the front in the 40th minute when Phil Ridley set up a goal for Neil Owens.

Two minutes later, Ross Wells made it two from close range.

A mere three minutes into the second half, Mark Smith scored from an indirect freekick and David Brock engineered Adamstown's fourth goal for Wells to scored his second goal.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

TWO-HORSE RACE IN '88

Hellas and Croatia blitzed local opposition to win every 1988 club competition in South Australia.

Adelaide Croatia took out the two major titles — the Rothmans League and the PGH Federation Cup, but Hellas notched a Top Four Coca Cola Challenge-West End Premier-Ampol treble.

Croatia won the title, two points clear of Hellas.

Hellas really came good in the latter stages of 1988 after missing out in the League.

Croatia raised some eyebrows when they declined to participate in the National League promotion play-offs — a chance the ambitious Hellas would have jumped at.

Salisbury carved a slice of the South Australian pie for themselves by reaching the finals of the West End Premier and Ampol Cups and clinching fourth place in the League, marginally ahead of Campbelltown on goal-difference.

Birkalla came third in the League, some eight points behind Hellas.

Beograd finished in last place, four points adrift of Cumberland.

CROATIA'S PGH CUP

Croatia staged a glorious comeback to convert certain defeat into a 3-2 victory against Polonia in the final of the 1988 PGH Federation Cup.

The League champions trailed by two goals after being humbled in midfield.

But the second half arrival of Ivica Jurkovic and Mike Donnelly changed all that.

Goals by Jurkovic, Steve Witwicki and Ante Ljubic dramatically turned the game around.

Croatia completed the League and Cup double, after Polonia looked to have captured the Cup for the first time since 1975.

Mariusz Niewiadomski scored a golden opener and then Rick Piotrowski looked to have sealed the spoils with a good second.

But then Croatia made their changes and everything went wrong for Polonia as Croatia stormed home.

Croatia were less successful in the final of Coca Cola Cup, where they were beaten 7-2, in a penalty shoot-out, by arch-rivals Hellas.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

FLOREAT ATHENA'S 1988 CLEAN SWEEP

Floreat Athena ruled the roost in Western Australia in 1988.

They won the Top Four final, in addition to the league and the D'Orsogna Cup in an unprecedented grand slam of winter titles.

No other club has achieved a clean sweep of the winter titles, though Perth Azzurri, in 1971, also took out three trophies.

Only once, in 1977, have Athena been able to see their efforts justified with the most prestigious title of all.

Athena had their moments of luck as every champion side must have, at one stage producing four consecutive draws.

But no other club could take advantage of the lapses.

Athena deserve their success, having been given a chance of doing something at the start of the season, but with Macedonia generally being tipped as the club to win the premiership.

Paul Wormley (Floreat) in action at left.

Macedonia finished second, made the grand final of both the night series, which they won, and the grand final of the Top Four.

Not a bad effort, but one by their own standards for which they were disappointed.

North Perth Croatia had a marvellous year to finish second after an indifferent start, while Kingsway Olympic, looking a relegation prospect with six games to go, finished up in fourth spot.

Sorrento for a long period seemed a premiership contender and a top four prospect in their first year in top company before gradually dropping to sixth spot, which was still a grand effort.

Bayswater promised much before they missed out on the four by a slightly inferior goal-difference to Olympic.

But they made the cup final for the first time in their history and put up a strong showing before bowing out to Athena.

They tried to introduce many youngsters, but in the end they didn't have enough experience when it counted.

The big disappointment was the failure of Perth Italia to qualify for the top four.

The brave experiment of amalgamating Perth Azzurri, East Fremantle Tricolore and Balcatta Etna hasn't sparked so far.

All in all, the Super League of eight clubs was a success in its first year, but fine tuning is needed.

ACT'S MIXED BAG IN 1988

1988 was a year of mixed fortune for the ACT Soccer Federation.

Lack of continuity caused by turnover of management committees and the staff (both the Executive Director and the Director of Coaching) resulted in a series of minor technical and administrative problems.

1989 will see many of these problems gone, as committees and staff are now oriented to the task at hand, and look forward to developing the code into the 1990s.

Over the past 12 months there have been a number of positive achievements by the ACTSF, including:

- the hosting of an Olympic qualifying match between Australia and Chinese Taipei.
- the hosting of the Saudi Arabia v Argentina match in the Bicentennial Gold Cup.
- the performance of ACT teams at national championships.

- the selection of Tony Giannasca and Ned Zelic in the Australian Youth squad, and Tony Pangallo in the Australian U16 squad.

- the successful ACT first Player of the Year Presentation.

On a local level, the Premier League saw a closely contested competition, with Croatia Deakin taking the honours over Canberra College of Advanced Education.

Tuggeranong United had an excellent season and will be a threat for next year.

The Junior League conducted, in addition to the competition, a successful weekend 'round robin' tournament — the Bicentennial Cup.

The ACTSF is well underway with planning for 1989 and beyond. With continuity now established within Federation ranks, a bright and prosperous future for ACT Soccer is anticipated.

FIRST ROTHMANS WINNER IN ACT

Peter Thompson, of Tuggeranong United, won the ACT's first-ever Rothman Medal in 1988.

Thompson just edged out Jim Harkins, of Deakin Croatia, collecting 21 points to the latter's 20.

Doug Marcina took out the Under 21 Player of the Year trophy, and Croatia won the most trophies by anyone club.

ACT's first Rothmans Award winner Peter Thompson receives his trophy from ASF president, Ian Brusasco.

Croatian delight

LATE in the 1988 season, Canberra Croatia set themselves up to become the ACT's regular representative in the NSW State League.

Before then Canberra Olympians, part shareholders with Downer Olympic in controlling the Canberra club, had been involved in legal manoeuvring to sell the club to Croatia, with the ACT Federation involved in the background.

Croatia though, had claimed that they had won the battle a month earlier, but were shattered to know that the Griffins were about to fold altogether.

The Olympians eventually sold out to the ACTSF, who in turn transferred control to the Croatian club.

It was a marvellous week for Croatia Deakin.

They celebrated the 30th anniversary of Croatian soccer in Canberra, and with the new name of Canberra Croatia, they are aiming to be a major force in 1989.

TASMANIA

FIELD SPREAD-EAGLED

White Eagles were the 1988 Cadbury State League champions in Tasmania.

Eagles ran away with the title, winning by a massive eight points from second-placed Olympia-WPL in the inaugural year of the genuine state-wide competition.

It was the Eagles' second title in three seasons, having topped the Southern Tasmanian Cadbury League in 1986 under coach Steve Darby.

Southern team Caledonians collected the wooden spoon, but it was a close thing with last place not being decided until the very last round.

Needing a win against Hobart Juventus to avoid last place, Caledonians led 1-0 with a minute remaining until Sergio Pace rattled home a 30-metre volley which gave Calies' goalkeeper Glenn Stewart no chance.

The draw left Caledonians one point adrift of second-last side Launceston Matric, but gave Hobart Juventus fourth spot on goal-difference from fifth-placed Devonport City, coached by Ken Morton.

Hobart Juventus, which had already won the Cascade Summer Cup and the Cadbury Charity Trophy, were coached by former Newcastle supremo Peter Irving.

Juventus' prospects in the final few matches were not helped when English imports, brothers Paul and David Currie, had to leave the country when the club would not extend their sponsorship and their sport visas were terminated.

Launceston Juventus proved to be the best Northern Tasmanian club, finishing in third place.

White Eagles wrapped up the title with a 4-0 win over Caledonians in mid-week, then defeated Ulverstone by an identical scoreline on the last day of the league season.

Lino Taglieri, of Hobart City Azzurri, won the Player of the Year award for the Southern Tasmanian Rothmans League First Division — also for the second time.

MARCONI'S JUBILATION

MARCONI completed a great double for the Fairfield-based club when the youth side won the first league competition in its history.

Finishing fourth at the end of 24 matches, Marconi really had to fight for the title which had eluded them over the years.

The first assignment was against the might of St George, which was no easy task.

But two first team players recorded goals to give them a 3-0 victory.

Tommy Mc Culloch opened the scoring late in the first half and young Vince Colagiuri, finding his form just when the team needed him to, netted in the 48th and 67th minutes. Colagiuri played so well that he secured a first team berth in the playoffs.

Marconi qualified to meet Sydney Croatia in the preliminary final, with the winner to meet

Sydney Olympic in the grand final.

The Fairfielders grabbed the initiative from the start and played like a team inspired.

Croatia were rattled early and did not show the form which allowed them to dominate the 1988 championship and Marconi made it to the grand final.

Olympic, who two weeks earlier defeated minor premiers Croatia 1-0, were favoured to win their second consecutive championship.

The experts were again proved wrong as Marconi proved emphatically that a championship can be won from fourth place on the premiership table.

Marconi took the lead through Carlos Vanegas and never relenquished it to post a 1-0 victory in an exciting, high-standard game.

NATIONAL FINAL
MARCONI 2 (Geoff Gunning, Vince Colagiuri) SUNSHINE GEORGE CROSS 1 (George Karkaledis) at Parramatta Stadium.

NATIONAL YOUTH LEAGUE

By virtue of this win, Marconi were set to meet Sunshine George Cross, winners of the southern national youth league.

Sunshine came through the hard way because in Victoria five teams qualify for the semi-finals.

They started badly by losing 2-0 to Brunswick in the major semi-final and had to win the preliminary final against Melbourne Croatia.

It almost ended there for Sunshine as Croatia were leading 1-0 with only 20 minutes remaining but Young Soccerroo John Markovski saved the day for them, with two goals in five minutes for another crack in the grand final at Brunswick Juventus, who had eliminated South Melbourne 2-0.

Brunswick went into the match confident of making it two in a row, but Sunshine spoilt it for them by winning 4-1.

Gary Clark was the hero for Georgie with a hat-trick in what was his last game for the club, and he certainly left on a happy note.

Juve were demoralised by the early strikes of the rampant Sunshine forwards.

In the national grand final, Sunshine carried on where they had left off against Brunswick a week earlier. They were awarded a penalty 20 minutes in.

George Karkaledis scored at his second attempt for a 1-0 half-time George Cross lead.

With nine minutes remaining, the clever Colagiuri slipped an excellent pass to Geoff Gunning to blast home the equaliser.

Extra-time looked imminent until Colagiuri cracked home the winner with only seconds left.

Marconi emerged 2-1 winners to give the club a splendid National Youth League double.

CHAMPIONS OF OCEANIA

The Young Socceroos took out yet another Oceania Youth World Cup sectional qualifying tournament, in September 1988, in Suva, Fiji.

The Aussies defeated New Zealand 1-0 in the final of the seven-nation series, with both countries advancing to the Asia/Oceania play-offs against Syria and Qatar.

Australia's results in 1988:

ROUND 1: AUSTRALIA 5 (Arambasic 2, Markovski, Ilic, Longo) VANUATU 0; AUSTRALIA 6 (Arambasic 2, Gee 2, Markovski 2) CHINESE TAIPEI 1.

SEMI-FINAL: AUSTRALIA 4 (Ilic 2, Gee, Blagojevic) FIJI 2.

FINAL: AUSTRALIA 1 (Ilic) NEW ZEALAND 0.

STUMPED IN SYRIA!

Australia's Young Socceroos failed to qualify for the World Cup finals in Saudi Arabia.

They were eliminated in the four-team play-offs in Syria in January 1989.

The Aussies came up just one goal short — the difference between first and third place.

Syria went on to win, Qatar came second and New Zealand fourth.

ECSTASY, THEN AGONY IN CHINA

FROM HEATHER REID

Australia reached the quarter-finals of the unofficial World Cup for women in China in 1988.

Australia made a bold start by defeating Brazil 1-0 in their first game, and Thailand 3-0 in the next.

They then faced 1987 European champions, Norway, in the third match, with Norway desperately needing a win in order to keep their finals hopes alive.

As expected, the Norwegians dominated the game with their height advantage and played 'aerial football' which denied the Aussies any chance of playing their short-passing game.

Norway's three goals were all headed in from corners.

Brazil, Norway and Australia all qualified for the quarter-finals after each team finished with four points in Group C.

Australia, however, was dropped to third place on goal-difference, and their battle against China, the top team from Group A, proved to be quite an experience.

After such a hectic start to the tournament, the task of defeating the Chinese before a home crowd of more than 30,000 seemed too great for a relatively inexperienced Aussie side.

The resultant 7-0 defeat by China will remain in the minds of all who were witness to the magnificent display of football by the Chinese, and the failure of the Aussies to overcome the pressure.

The Aussies can take some consolation in knowing that Norway went on to win the tournament and that they defeated third place Brazil.

Many lessons can be learned from the China experience and it is hoped that FIFA gives Australia a second chance to participate in a world competition, and in particular the first FIFA World Cup, due to be held in 1990.

The scorers for Australia were Janine

Riddington, Julie Dolan, Julie Murray and Carol Vinson.

Results: Australia 1 d Brazil 0, Australia 3 d Thailand 0, Norway 3 d Australia 0.

Quarter-finals: China 7 d Australia 0, Sweden 1 d Canada 0, Norway 1 d USA 0, Brazil 2 d Netherlands 1.

Semi-finals: Sweden 2 d China 1, Norway 2 d Brazil 1.

Finals: 3v4 Brazil 4 d China 3 (penalties), 1v2 Norway 2 d Sweden 1.

CHINESE TAIPEI'S OCEANIA CUP

Chinese Taipei beat New Zealand 1-0 in the final of the Oceania Women's Cup held in Brisbane over the 1989 Easter weekend.

Australia, represented by two teams — Australia Green and Australia Gold — disappointed.

India and Polynesia pulled out and the other participant was the inexperienced Papua New Guinea.

Results: Australia Gold-Papua New Guinea 2-0, New Zealand-Australia Green 2-0, Australia Green-Australia Gold 0-0, Chinese Taipei-Papua New Guinea 6-1, Chinese Taipei-Australia Green 4-1, New Zealand-Australia Gold 2-0, Australia Green-Papua New Guinea 6-0, New Zealand v Chinese Taipei 1-0. Final: Chinese Taipei-New Zealand 1-0.

It's back to the drawing board for the Aussies after this emphatic setback.

Australia will have to do much better to be invited to the inaugural Women's World Cup.

NSW'S CLEAN SWEEP

NSW made a clean sweep of Australian national championship titles in 1988.

First up, the under 19s took out the championship in Perth, while the under 16s did likewise in Melbourne.

NSW completed the hat-trick by winning the senior title in Newcastle.

None of the three triumphant sides lost a single game.

The under 19 and senior coach was Alan Lytton, and Chris James coached the under 16s to victory.

The NSW Amateur Soccer Federation recorded over 107,000 registrations for the year.

Above that, various unaffiliated organisations such as the NSW Churches Football Association for example, would swell the total NSW number to over 130,000.

And that excludes those who play only in schools football.

President John Hedison has looked for progress and unity, and it is coming to pass.

With the $578,000 paid to the Federation's insurance brokers, the state body is a $1 million per year sporting enterprise.

The other goal of the Amateur Federation is to see the code unified throughout the state of NSW.

From a late start in professional coaching at state level, NSW has gone on to take its place at the forefront of development.

Full time administration and active marketing will bear more fruit for the future.

While Cabramatta were able to retain their 1987 title in the boys' competition, East Hills were not as successful in the Commonwealth Bank Soccer Shield for girls.

The 1987 champions were defeated 5-1 by Canterbury, who scored through Daveena Doyle (2), Olga Underwood, Olympia Houliaras and Dendy Sorensen. Helen Bruynius netted for East Hills.

Alex Aravena (Cabramatta) was voted Player of the Final and Mark Mlinac (Fairvale) the Player of the Series.

In the girls' competition, Daveena Doyle (Canterbury) was voted Player of the Final and she shared the Player of the Series award with East Hills' Lyndall Corey.

PARAGUAY'S TRIUMPH

After two years of meticulous planning by Australian Indoor Soccer Federation president Joe Brent, chairman Charles Perkins and a dedicated band of workers, the third World Indoor Cup was staged in Australia in October 1988.

Sixteen nations competed at several venues, which did not include Sydney as the NSW Government declined to financially assist this important Bicentennial event.

Other governments, local councils and sponsors did come to the party and matches took place — over 10 days — in Melbourne, Moe, Geelong, Canberra and Wollongong.

The organisers were able to raise a hefty $315,000, with $120,000 of it donated by the Victorian Department of Sport, with support also coming from Wollongong.

The Melbourne Sports and Entertainment Centre provided a top-notch venue for the semi-finals and for the final.

Brazil, as classy in indoor football as outdoor, had won the title in both previous World Cups — at home in 1982, and in Spain, in 1985 — and were the raging-hot pre-tournament favourites.

Their Latin opposition — Paraguay, Uruguay, Argentina, Spain and Portugal — were expected to provide the stiffest competition.

Australia were aiming to improve on their eighth placing of 1985.

Australian coach Nick Nicolopoulos was determined his team would move on from the elimination to the qualifying round, just as the Socceroos had done at the Olympic Games.

The Indoorroos did not disappoint their supporters: they annihilated Hungary and Italy — 16-0 and 12-0 respectively — to accompany Uruguay into Round 2 as the second-placed team from Group A.

Group B saw Paraguay win all their three matches, with Portugal also qualifying easily, ahead of the inexperienced England and Canada who, like the Hungarians and Italians, are new to the FIFUSA game.

Spain and Argentina tied at the top of Group C.

Costa Rica defeated the gallant New Zealanders, who defied local Soccer officialdom to compete, in the battle of the minnows.

Brazil ran riot in Group D and were joined in the next round by runners-up Czechoslovakia, but the USA were not disgraced as their indoor game back home bears little resemblance to what they encountered in Australia.

Japan came along for the experience and will have benefited from its first World Cup.

With all the big guns through to the quarter-final round, the World Cup was well and truly on — and the first surprises occurred.

Australia, unlucky to be pitted against the might of Brazil and Paraguay, lost to both, but bowed out of the World Cup with heads held high after thrashing Argentina 7-3 — a marvellous result which made the indoor world sit up and take notice.

Australia has arrived on the international indoor scene and would probably have come very close to a semi-final berth had they been included in the other qualifying group.

That group produced a huge surprise when Uruguay — tipped by many as Brazil's opponent in the final — was unceremoniously bundled out by Spain and Portugal, and also forced to a draw by Czechoslovakia, the only non-Latin country, with Australia, to make an impression in this World Cup.

So, the semi-final line-up was Brazil v Portugal and Paraguay v Spain.

There was no surprises there, Paraguay and Spain winning convincingly to set up an eagerly anticipated final at the magnificent Melbourne Sports and Entertainment Centre.

After Spain had disposed of Portugal 5-1 for third place in the curtain-raiser, the crowd was ready to enjoy the all-South American final between the two traditional indoor rivals.

‘tough qualifying group’

The game exceeded all expectations as history with a capital “H” was made.

Little Paraguay (with a population of less than 3 million) caused the greatest upset in international indoor Soccer when they pried the world title away from the Brazilian giant (population 150 million) with a nail-biting 2-1 win.

In a shock result which ended Brazil's unbeaten 31-year streak (over 920 matches without defeat!), Paraguay proved master tacticians and played on the weak spots in Brazil's line-up.

These “weaknesses” had not been apparent throughout the tournament as Brazil blitzed the opposition, but they did exist, and Paraguay capitalised on them brilliantly.

Paraguay exposed Brazil's vulnerability under pressure — and the lack of depth in their squad once playmaker Geraldo Sobrinho was forced out of the match with injury and Player of the Tournament, Mauro Carvalho, sent off.

Luis Ortiz gave Brazil the lead in only the second minute, but Miguel Martinez equalised in the 12th and Oscar Basualdo scored the winner with two minutes remaining.
